

Intergenerational Checklist

Using this table below, check how well the different ministries in your own context are doing at intentionally bringing the generations together.

Rate each ministry out of 5 (1 - not great, 5 - good) against the criteria on the left, and add up the totals below

Criteria	 Children 	 Teenagers 	 Young Adults 	 Adults 	 Seniors
Name of your ministry e.g. Youth Group
A place to belong
A place where everyone is loved and accepted
Opportunities to be a part of something bigger than themselves
Opportunities for everyone to experience accountability and real relationships
Opportunities to collaborate with other generations
Opportunities to serve and contribute
Opportunities to mentor and disciple others in their faith
Opportunities to be disciplined and grow and learn from others further along in their faith journey
A welcoming environment
TOTAL

Recommended Resources

Allen, H. and Ross, C. (2012) Intergenerational Christian Formation: Bringing the whole church together in ministry, community and worship, IVP Academic.

Semans Smith, L. and Herdman, L. (2015) Explore together (The Journey and Resource Book), Scripture Union. www.sunz.org.nz

Tolman, T. (2013) Collide: Exploring INTERGenerational Ministry, Creative Visions Print and Design. www.tammytolman.net.au

Strandz - the Hub of Children and Families Ministry for the Anglican Church of New Zealand www.strandz.org.nz